BLACKBIRD FOR TRAINING

Guidance and Mentoring Program

27 – 31 December 2026
Cairo (Egypt)

UK Traininig
PARTNER

www.blackbird-training.com

Guidance and Mentoring Program

Ref: 3254517_160204 Date: 27 – 31 December 2026 Location: Cairo (Egypt) Fees: 4200 GBP

Introduction

Welcome to the Guidance and Mentoring Program, a comprehensive initiative designed to empower individuals through personalized support and professional development. This course emphasizes the significance of mentorship and guidance in fostering effective relationships that encourage growth, skill enhancement, and confidence building. Participants will explore the essential mentorship definition, understanding how strategic guidance can shape their careers and personal lives. Through engaging practical exercises and real-world scenarios, attendees will acquire the tools needed to guide and inspire others, contributing to a culture of continuous learning and development.

Course Objectives

The course aims to equip participants with a profound understanding of mentoring and guidance and provide them with the necessary skills to build effective mentoring relationships. Key objectives of the course include:

- Understand Mentoring Principles: Grasp the fundamental concepts and values of effective mentoring relationships, including the purpose of mentorship.
- Develop Communication Skills: Enhance verbal and non-verbal communication techniques essential for effective mentorship and career guidance.
- Create a Supportive Environment: Learn strategies to create a safe space for mentees to express themselves, which is critical for successful mentorship programs.
- Set Clear Goals: Assist mentees in defining and achieving their personal and professional objectives, emphasizing the importance of goals for mentorship.
- Provide Constructive Feedback: Master the art of giving and receiving constructive feedback to foster growth and improvement in the mentorship meaning.
- Encourage Self-Reflection: Promote self-assessment practices that enable mentees to recognize their strengths and areas for growth, which are key aspects of mentorship training.
- Build Trust and Rapport: Learn techniques to build and maintain trustful relationships with mentees, which are foundational to effective mentoring.
- Address Challenges: Equip mentors with strategies to navigate common mentoring challenges and conflicts, ensuring smooth mentoring journeys.
- Measure Success: Learn to assess the effectiveness of mentoring relationships and make necessary adjustments to enhance the mentorship experience.
- Promote Lifelong Learning: Inspire a mindset of continuous improvement and personal growth in both mentors and mentees, emphasizing why mentorship is important.

Course Outlines

Day 1: Introduction to Mentoring

- Overview of Mentoring: Define mentoring and its significance in personal and professional development, explaining what is guidance and how it differs from mentorship.
- Types of Mentoring: Explore various types of mentorship, including one-on-one and group mentoring, and their unique benefits.
- Roles and Responsibilities: Understand the roles of both mentors and mentees in the mentoring relationship, including what is the role of a guidance counselor.
- Establishing Objectives: Learn how to set clear goals for mentoring sessions that align with the mentorship program objectives.

Day 2: Effective Communication in Mentoring

- Communication Styles: Identify different communication styles and their impact on mentorship.
- Active Listening: Practice active listening techniques to enhance understanding and connection.
- Feedback Mechanisms: Learn how to provide and solicit constructive feedback effectively, an essential skill in any mentorship.
- Building Rapport: Explore strategies to establish trust and rapport with mentees to strengthen the mentorship bond.

Day 3: Creating a Supportive Environment

- Nurturing Relationships: Techniques for creating a safe space for open dialogue and vulnerability within mentorship settings.
- Encouragement and Motivation: Learn how to inspire and motivate mentees to reach their goals.
- Addressing Challenges: Strategies for recognizing and overcoming barriers to effective mentoring, ensuring that challenges do not hinder the mentoring process.
- Cultural Sensitivity: Understand the importance of cultural awareness in mentoring relationships.

Day 4: Goal Setting and Self-Reflection

- SMART Goals: Introduce the SMART criteria for setting achievable and measurable goals within the context of mentorship.
- Personal Development Plans: Guide mentees in creating actionable plans for their development that align with their career guidance needs.
- Self-Assessment Techniques: Encourage mentees to reflect on their strengths and areas for growth, fostering self-awareness.
- Mentor's Role in Reflection: Discuss how mentors can facilitate self-reflection among mentees, promoting a deeper understanding of their career paths.

Day 5: Evaluating and Sustaining Mentoring Relationships

- Measuring Success: Learn how to assess the effectiveness of the mentoring relationship through established metrics.
- Adjusting Goals and Approaches: Discuss how to modify objectives based on ongoing evaluations to enhance the mentorship experience.
- Long-term Mentoring: Strategies for sustaining relationships beyond formal mentoring programs, reinforcing the importance of mentorship.
- Promoting Lifelong Learning: Encourage a commitment to continuous learning and development for both mentors and mentees, highlighting the value of a career guidance certificate and ongoing career guidance coaching.

Why Attend This Course: Wins & Losses!

By participating in this mentoring and guidance training, you will gain valuable skills that can make a difference in your personal and professional life. Key benefits include:

- Effective Career Guidance: Learn how to be an effective mentor using strategic guidance to lead others to success.
- Building Trust and Rapport: Develop skills to build trust in mentoring relationships, contributing to the success of any mentorship program.
- Motivation and Personal Growth: Learn how to motivate mentees and guide them to achieve their mentorship goals, both personally and professionally.
- Evaluating and Adjusting Goals: Learn how to assess the mentoring relationship to ensure that mentorship goals are achieved.
- Managing Challenges: Equip yourself with strategies to overcome challenges that may arise during the mentoring process.

Without this course, you may miss out on learning how to become an effective mentor who helps others succeed. Not acquiring these skills may limit your ability to guide and motivate others toward achieving their goals.

Conclusion

This structured program provides a unique opportunity to understand the role of mentorship and guidance in personal and professional growth. By integrating these key concepts and skills, you will be well-equipped to create a supportive mentoring environment that fosters personal development and lifelong learning.

Join us on this journey to unlock the full potential of effective mentorship!

