The Complete Program in Secretaries of Boards of Directors & Committees

Introduction

This training course is designed to develop the essential skills and knowledge for Board Secretaries, offering insights into their role and responsibilities in line with corporate law, board governance systems, and corporate governance principles. As the board secretary is also the secretary of all board committees, this course focuses on the liaison role that connects the board and its various committees, ensuring they function as a unified entity. The course also provides practical tips and strategies for corporate secretaries to enhance their skills and align their practices with international best practices.

Participants will be introduced to the tools and methods used in preparing the board's annual report, as well as an understanding of the scope of work and responsibilities of the Board Secretary. Additionally, the course will cover how to handle governance challenges faced by companies, and how the secretary can contribute to decision-making by establishing essential requirements that must be researched, analyzed, and benchmarked.
