Taxation and Transfer Pricing of Intangibles: Strategies, Challenges, and Best Practices

Introduction

In today's global economy, the taxation of intangible assets such as intellectual property IP is a critical topic for multinational enterprises. These assets, which can range from trademarks and patents to software and proprietary technologies, are increasingly integral to the value of a business. This course will provide participants with an in-depth understanding of the taxation and transfer pricing TP strategies related to intangibles, focusing on benchmarking and challenges faced in both developed and developing countries.

Participants will explore the complexities involved in valuing and taxing intangibles, addressing the difficulties in assigning appropriate prices, and how to allocate risks effectively within digital business models.

Course Objectives

- Understand the role of valuation in Transfer Pricing TP for intangibles.
- Analyze the complexities of Hard-to-Value Intangibles HTVI and their impact on business models.
- Identify challenges in the digital economy related to intangible assets.
- Examine the issues surrounding tax and dispute resolution in developing countries.
- Learn how to manage intercompany transactions and sector-specific risks.
- Develop skills in benchmarking intangibles for tax and valuation purposes.
- Understand the impact of IP migration and cost-sharing arrangements CSAs on tax compliance.
