Anti-Bribery and Corruption: Strategic Training to Protect Institutions

Introduction

In today's global business landscape, combating bribery and corruption is not a compliance luxury—it is a strategic necessity. For organizations operating in high-risk regions or heavily regulated sectors, understanding how to mitigate corruption risks is fundamental to sustainability and trust.

This training course is designed for executives, team leaders, compliance officers, legal advisors, procurement specialists, and finance professionals across both public and private sectors in the Middle East and North Africa. It equips them with the knowledge and tools needed to identify, prevent, and manage bribery and corruption through practical policies and globally recognized frameworks.

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the core definitions and implications of bribery and corruption.
- Interpret local and international anti-corruption laws and frameworks.
- Assess risk factors related to bribery in different organizational contexts.
- Develop proactive compliance programs to prevent unethical behavior.
- Establish internal reporting and whistleblowing systems.
