Advanced Governance, Risk, and Compliance in Boards and Committees in the Public Sec

Introduction

After completing the first phase, which focused on the fundamentals of governance and risk management in the public sector, this advanced course is designed to establish advanced governance mechanisms at the board and committee levels through interactive discussions and presentations. The course aims to support boards in developing decision-making mechanisms aligned with strategic directions, objectives, and general controls. This course focuses on board-level governance oversight concepts, including committee governance, strategic risk management, regulatory compliance, ethical oversight, as well as internal controls and modern tools such as technology in oversight evaluations, and global governance models like COSO and OECD.

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Lead a governance system through effective boards and specialized committees.
- Assess the performance and role of boards and committees in effective governance.
- Understand current exceptional challenges in the public sector and discuss national solutions.
- Develop governance practices in line with international best practices.
- Establish effective institutional governance at both oversight and operational levels.
- Utilize modern tools and technologies in governance and oversight processes.

Why Attend This Course: Wins & Losses!

Effective governance is the cornerstone of any successful organization. With the rapid evolution of regulatory environments and increasing challenges, the need for intelligent and strategic oversight has never been more critical.

Wins:

- Strengthen the organization's reputation and increase stakeholder trust.
- Enhance institutional performance and develop internal competencies.
- Improve adaptability to risks and strategic changes with speed and flexibility.

Losses:

- Weak oversight can lead to loss of trust and exposure to high risks.
- Poor performance and lack of accountability may negatively impact organizational sustainability.
- Non-compliance can result in serious legal and financial consequences.

Conclusion

This course offers a comprehensive journey to develop participants' expertise in strategic and oversight governance, equipping them with the tools needed to keep pace with changes and achieve organizational excellence. Through this training journey, participants will be empowered to lead their organizations toward stronger, more effective governance, enhancing resilience and ensuring long-term sustainability.
