Change Management Strategies and Conflict Resolution

Introduction

In today's dynamic business landscape, organizations face constant change and conflict. While these challenges are often seen as disruptive, when addressed with the right change management strategies and conflict resolution techniques, they can drive innovation, collaboration, and sustainable growth.

This course equips participants with practical tools to plan and lead organizational change while addressing resistance to change and managing conflicts constructively. Through interactive discussions, hands-on exercises, and case studies, participants will strengthen their leadership, communication, and problem-solving skills, enabling them to guide their teams through transitions with confidence, trust, and adaptability.

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand core change management principles and models such as Kotter's 8 Steps, ADKAR, and Lewin's Model.
- Recognize and address resistance to change effectively.
