Introduction

The field of Criminal Law and Criminal Justice plays a critical role in maintaining social order, protecting individual rights, and ensuring justice within society. This comprehensive 2-week training programme provides participants with an in-depth understanding of criminal law principles, the structure and function of criminal justice systems, and the practical application of legal procedures in criminal cases.

The course examines the roles of law enforcement agencies, prosecutors, courts, and correctional institutions in administering justice. Participants will explore key legal concepts such as criminal liability, evidence, investigation procedures, trial processes, and sentencing frameworks. Through case studies, practical examples, and comparative analyses of international criminal justice systems, the programme aims to enhance participants' professional competencies in handling criminal cases effectively and ethically.
