Workshop Crisis & Conflict Management

Code: PS28 From: 26 - 30 May 2025 City: Rome (Italy) Fees: 4200 Pound

Introduction

In today's fast-paced and unpredictable world, organizations must be prepared for crises. This course provides participants with the knowledge and skills needed to understand and manage crises effectively. You will learn how a crisis can impact an organization and explore strategies to mitigate its effects. Focusing on crisis management, this course emphasizes the importance of crisis communication, effective response protocols, and managing perceptions in both traditional media and social media during a crisis.

By attending this course, you will gain the tools necessary to implement a crisis management plan, form a crisis management team CMT, and use communication methods that keep the organization's reputation intact. You will learn how to prepare for crisis situations, respond rapidly, and make decisions that contribute to a successful crisis recovery.

Course Objectives

- Define crisis management and the different types of crises that organizations may face.
- Identify the principles of effective crisis communication and how to apply them in a crisis situation.
- Develop a crisis management plan CMP to manage and mitigate crises before, during, and after they occur.
- Understand the role of media and social media in crisis situations and how to utilize them effectively.
- Evaluate the key dimensions of crisis communication management and how to prioritize them in real-time.
- Measure and analyze the effectiveness of your crisis communication efforts to improve future responses.
