The Global Approach to Leading During Crisis

Code: LM28 From: 24 - 28 February 2025 City: Amsterdam (Netherlands) Fees: 4200 Pound

Introduction

We live in a changing world. Nothing is certain but uncertainty. Management, CEOs, and board members should be open & flexible enough to adapt. By adaptation, we mean strategic understanding & planning to what's happening.

This workshop is not designed for non-decision makers. This workshop is designed for leaders who have the eagle view and the ability to change and respond to change.

The recent changes in the world like unrest, pandemics, and health crises dictate new strategies and approaches to run organizations and keep to existence. So, again, those managers, leaders, CEOs, and board members, have to master new comprehension & skills in terms of strategic planning, crisis management, media communication during a crisis, and the adaptation of technology to survive.

Course Objectives
