Code: CC28 From: 28 October - 1 November 2024 City: London (UK) Fees: 4700 Pound

Introduction

This course is designed to transform participants into business advisors and high yielding and profit-generating relationship managers whom clients rely on and companies value. The course shows participants how to build long-term, value-based relationships with large accounts, penetrate them for additional business, and maximize the revenue they generate while reducing the time and costs of managing them. The course also provides a strong focus on quantitative approaches to account qualification and account planning best practices.

Course Objectives of Key Account Management KAM

- Define the functions of key accounts and their importance for the commercial organization
- Identify and prioritize key accounts to measure their profitability and qualify their strategic importance for their company
