Code: SA28 From: 4 - 8 January 2026 City: Dubai (UAE) Fees: 3900 Pound

Introduction

Managing an office has evolved into a more sophisticated and intricate task in today's fast-paced and diverse business environments. With the increased demand for speed, accuracy, technological knowledge, and handling a dynamic workforce, office management poses numerous challenges but also opens up opportunities for growth. This advanced training course explores key skills that can help office managers perform their duties confidently, creatively, and effectively.

The Office Management & Effective Administration Skills course is designed to refine the skills required to excel as an Office Manager, Administrator, or Executive Secretary. This course will cover vital interpersonal and behavioral skills necessary to handle various management styles and situations. Participants will also learn how to maintain control while dealing with conflicting priorities, an essential trait for any successful office manager. By becoming more effective in your role, you'll not only make your job easier but also increase your value to your managers and stakeholders. As an office manager, multitasking is essential, but so is being indispensable—knowing exactly who to call to resolve challenges swiftly and effectively. This course will equip you with the tools to be an organized, communicative, and proactive manager, capable of handling any challenge.
