Change Management for Leaders & Managers

Code: LM32 From: 12 - 16 April 2027 City: Lisbon (Portugal) Fees: 5200 Pound

Introduction

This Change Management course for leaders is designed to equip professionals with the essential skills and knowledge necessary to navigate and lead organizational change effectively. Change is inevitable, but how an organization manages it determines whether it leads to growth or disruption. Throughout this course, participants will explore how to define and understand change, identify its impact on individuals and teams, and develop strategies to support and motivate people through transitions. By learning how to implement effective change management strategies, leaders will be able to lead their teams through challenges with confidence.

We will cover the planning and execution of change initiatives, effective communication strategies, and the crucial role that leadership plays in driving successful change. Additionally, you will gain an understanding of the eight-stage model of change, which you can apply to ensure a smooth and impactful transformation in your organization.

This course is especially beneficial for those looking to enhance their change management skills for leaders and gain certification in this area. Whether you're managing a small team or overseeing large-scale changes, this training is key to mastering best practices for change management.
