Enhancing the Skills of Supervisory leadership

Code: LM32 From: 24 - 28 May 2027 City: Madrid (Spain) Fees: 5200 Pound

Introduction

Effective supervisory leadership is the foundation of strong organizations. The program aims to transform participants into confident, credible, and capable supervisors through dynamic and interactive training. By focusing on essential supervisory skills, you will learn how to manage yourself, your workload, and your team more effectively.

The course highlights the importance of time management, task prioritization, and planning to increase efficiency, while also emphasizing team management, communication skills, and staff development as core competencies of successful supervisors. Participants will also explore how different leadership styles affect team performance and how emotional intelligence contributes to creating a positive and productive workplace. Ultimately, this program equips you with the character, discipline, and techniques not just to survive but to excel as a supervisor.
