Audit and Foreign Exchange Reserves Management Process

Code: QM28 From: 30 December 2024 - 3 January 2025 City: Düsseldorf (Germany) Fees: 4200 Pound

Introduction

The course will cover the key processes involved in identifying, measuring, assessing the probability of, and prioritizing risks associated with reserves management and assessing the quality of control procedures and protocols. Participants will have the opportunity to learn from their peers in the context of sharing with the group their operational risk management frameworks and how their internal audit function uses the frameworks to assess risks and controls.

Course Objectives

- Provide participants with an understanding of how to implement a full-fledged risk-based auditing approach.
- Reserve management service.
- Level and adequacy of foreign reserves.
- Financial instruments used in reserve management.
- Portfolio management.
- Investment guidelines and strategic benchmarking.
- Market and credit risk control.
- Performance measurement.

Course Outlines
