Emotional Intelligence for Managers & Leaders

Code: PS28 From: 4 - 8 August 2025 City: Rome (Italy) Fees: 4200 Pound

Introduction

Emotional intelligence EI is a key factor that distinguishes exceptional leaders from others. This training course aims to provide you with the necessary knowledge and skills to understand and apply emotional intelligence in leadership roles. By exploring Daniel Goleman's EI framework, which ranges from self-awareness to relationship management, you will learn how to identify your strengths and areas for improvement. You will also examine how different leadership styles impact organizational climate and how to enhance communication and empathy within your team. This course will give you practical tools to develop your emotional intelligence and use it to improve both personal and professional relationships, enabling you to become a more effective leader.

Course Objectives

- Explain the nature, theories, and benefits of emotional intelligence.
- Identify personal strengths and areas for improvement through self-assessments.
- Define the various EI competencies and develop strategies for enhancing them.
- Practice empathy-building skills with a focus on active listening.
- Assess how different leadership styles and their associated emotional intelligence competencies affect organizational climate and business results.

Course Outlines

Day 1: Emotional Intelligence

- Definition, theories, and models of emotional intelligence.
- The difference between Emotional Quotient EQ and Intelligence Quotient IQ.
- The impact of EQ vs. IQ on personal and professional success.
