Introduction

The world is short of effective business leaders. This book is just one attempt at closing the gap between languishing underperformance and sustained high-performance. Specifically, it is about accelerated leadership development. By using coaching to be a better leader. No matter what your preferred leadership model or style is now or whether it's one or portfolio you may aspire to in the future. A few leadership examples might be; situational, visionary, transformational, authentic, crisis, transactional, strategic, or inspirational. Simply, how to be more of the leader you would like to become.

Training Planning is now a critical factor in the longer-term ability of International businesses to compete globally. It is now seen as a key business requirement, organizations must have a clear strategy, to support the training Planning process, we will discuss some real-life strategies and approaches. Just like verses of poetry, to make training planning more successful, you should team it up with training. The stronger the link the better the effect.
