Methods Used to Refund Airline Tickets

Code: AV28 From: 15 - 19 June 2026 City: London (UK) Fees: 5100 Pound

Introduction

Professionals are always seeking to acquire advanced skills in the core administrative processes of searching, booking, and purchasing airline tickets. When planning to travel by air, we often face various challenges related to reservations, features, schedules, discounts, purchasing advice, and other related issues, along with required aircraft procedures. This training course is designed to provide those involved with the most important and advanced sales skills for pre- and post-sales services for flight services, as well as the issuance of airline tickets, refunding their value, re-validation, and re-issuance.

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Customer Protection: Ensure customer rights are protected through safe and flexible booking and payment policies.
- Maintain Customer Satisfaction: Ensure an excellent experience for customers throughout the booking and ticketing process.
- Compliance with Regulations: Understand and apply all relevant aviation and regulatory requirements.
- Mitigating Reputational Damage: Learn strategies to avoid mistakes that may harm the organization's reputation.
- Prevent Future Incidents: Develop best practices to reduce the risk of errors and fraud in the ticketing process.

Day 4: Innovative Approaches and Regulations to Reduce Ticket Returns

- Improving customer service.
- Flexible booking policies.
- Personalizing the customer experience.
- Embracing new technologies.
- Staying compliant with regulations.
- Collaboration with partners.

Day 5: How Does Airline Ticket Fraud Happen?

- Use of stolen or hacked credit card details.
- Offering tickets for sale at bargain prices via websites or social media accounts.
- Requesting immediate payment via cash, bank transfer, or virtual currencies.
- Flight reservation confirmation after payment.

What happens if the card is stolen?

- If reported before the trip, the ticket will be canceled.
- If reported during the flight, the ticket cannot be canceled.

How to Identify a Fraudulent Ticket?

- Low ticket price.
- Departure time is just one or two days before the flight, or on the same day, before the real card owner notices the fraud and cancels the ticket.
- Request for payment in cash or by bank transfer.
- Incomplete information on travel agency websites or social media accounts.

Tips for Safe Purchases:

- Book tickets directly from the airline or from an accredited travel agency authorized by your country's authorities.

- Purchase tickets from websites with secure payment systems.
- Check if the travel agency has a legitimate website.
- Review the terms and conditions before making the purchase.
- Look for the IATA International Air Transport Association logo on the company's website.
