Workshop in The Art of Stakeholders Management Effectively

Code: OC28 From: 8 - 19 December 2025 City: Rome (Italy) Fees: 8300 Pound

Introduction

Stakeholder management is a fundamental element in any project or change initiative. Stakeholders are individuals or groups who have an interest in what you provide or do, and it is essential to influence and build support from them to foster strong relationships. Without the backing of these individuals, achieving success becomes a daunting task. Research shows that project and program management specialists spend significantly more time dealing with people and their issues than average respondents.

This innovative course on stakeholder management will focus on both the practical and theoretical aspects of influencing, negotiating, and communicating with stakeholders. You will learn how to build an ongoing relationship with stakeholders to ensure success in all your endeavors. The primary course objectives include:

Course Objectives

- Understand stakeholder interests: Learn what stakeholder management is, its definition, and how to identify and address the interests of your stakeholders.
- Differentiate between influence, persuasion, and negotiation: Master these critical skills and understand when and how to use each effectively in managing stakeholders.
- Develop a stakeholder participation management plan: Learn how to create a comprehensive strategy for managing stakeholder involvement throughout the project lifecycle.
- Evaluate stakeholder participation using an evaluation matrix: Understand how to measure and assess the success of your stakeholder management activities.
- Implement your plan within the project charter: Learn how to integrate your stakeholder management plan into the project's overarching goals.
- Leverage the change control plan: Use the change control process to ensure that stakeholder needs and expectations are continuously managed.
- Build trust with stakeholders: Learn the best practices for creating and maintaining trust in stakeholder relationships.
- Manage conflicts using negotiation and persuasion: Learn techniques to resolve conflicts and disputes through effective negotiation and persuasion strategies.
