Time & Stress Management

Code: PS32 From: 31 May - 4 June 2026 City: Washington (USA) Fees: 5900 Pound

Introduction

Time management is not just about managing your schedule, it's about finding the time for all the things you want and need to do. It helps you decide which tasks are urgent and which can wait. Learning how to improve time management, handle your activities, and meet your commitments can be challenging, but it is essential for reducing stress and making your life more meaningful and productive. By mastering time and stress management, you can enhance your professional and personal life.

This course is designed to help you manage your time more efficiently and effectively. Through interactive exercises, participants will explore various time management techniques, stress management strategies, and practical approaches to improve their productivity at work and in daily life. By the end of the course, you'll be equipped with tools to handle the pressures of modern life, prioritize tasks, and take control of your time for better success and well-being.
