Contract Negotiation and Purchasing Skills

Code: SC28 From: 20 - 24 October 2025 City: Boston, Massachusetts (USA) Fees: 5700 Pound

Introduction

Effective contract negotiation and purchasing skills are critical for organizations seeking to maximize profitability, minimize risks, and foster strong supplier relationships. Contrary to the belief that anyone can negotiate or purchase effectively, the reality reveals significant inefficiencies and losses due to a lack of structured strategies and skills.

This contract negotiation training seminar aims to equip participants with proven contract negotiation strategies and the tools to build a high-performing purchasing function. From understanding the contract negotiation process to mastering interpersonal skills, this course provides actionable insights for both individual growth and organizational success.

Participants will learn how to identify and overcome common purchasing failures, engage in effective negotiations across internal and external stakeholders, and reduce contractual risks. Additionally, this program will emphasize contract negotiation best practices through hands-on activities and case studies, ensuring participants leave with applicable skills and concepts to improve their business outcomes.

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Build a robust and efficient purchasing function.
- Apply proven contract negotiation steps and strategies.
