Image making and reputation management

Code: LM28 From: 19 - 23 January 2026 City: Prague (Czech) Fees: 4400 Pound

Introduction

The mental image of an organization is one of the key pillars of its success, playing a critical role in supporting the achievement of its mission, vision, and strategic objectives. Understanding the concept of image making and its significance is essential, as it helps protect the organization's reputation from accusations and rumors while increasing satisfaction among the target audience. This ultimately enhances their interest in the organization's services or products. The mental image guides all personnel in contributing to the maintenance, development, and enhancement of the organization's image locally, regionally, and internationally.

This intensive course aims to explore reputation management strategies within organizations and their role in building a strong brand. It covers topics such as constructing a distinctive and positive mental image and reputation for companies and institutions, deepening the understanding of the image-making process, and acquiring skills in planning, managing, maintaining, and developing the mental image to support the organization's mission, vision, and strategic objectives.

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the mental image and its components: Learn the essential elements of image making and its importance in building a strong organizational image.
- Recognize the importance of the mental image and its implications in achieving strategic objectives.
- Comprehend the stages of building the mental image: Learn how to create and maintain a strong mental image that enhances the organization's reputation.
- Familiarize with strategies for building and supporting the mental image: Gain the necessary skills in reputation management, including digital reputation management.
- Acquire skills in planning, managing, maintaining, and developing the mental image: Learn how to create a robust mental image that aligns with the organization's vision and mission.
- Identify obstacles and issues that distort the organization's image: Learn how to address and overcome reputational challenges such as rumors and crises.
- Deepen understanding of the mental image and develop skills to effectively contribute to the organization's objectives, ensuring clarity of the organization's image and reputation among its target audience.
