Public Sector Pension Policy and Compensation Packages

Code: HR28 From: 27 April - 8 May 2026 City: London (UK) Fees: 7400 Pound

Introduction

The management of public sector pension policies is critical to ensuring the financial security and well-being of employees after retirement. This comprehensive course provides an advanced introduction to both Public Sector Pension Policy and Compensation Packages, with a focus on the interplay between retirement benefits and employee reward systems. Participants will gain an in-depth understanding of pension plan policies, best pension policies, and how they align with compensation package design. By the end of the course, participants will be equipped with the knowledge and skills to navigate the complexities of pension fund policies and design effective compensation strategies that align with national pension policies and organizational goals.

Course Objectives

- Understand key concepts and the challenges of pension policies, including what is a pension policy and defined benefit pension plans.
- Explore the elements and purposes of compensation packages from both organizational and employee perspectives.
- Compare and evaluate various salary structures in relation to pension policies and their impact on compensation strategies.
- Analyze the impact of performance-related pay on employee motivation and organizational performance.
- Examine the role of benefits compensation packages in public sector remuneration, including allowances and pension schemes.
- Identify factors influencing international compensation packages and expatriate rewards in the public sector.
- Learn how to apply pension plan policies to improve employee engagement and satisfaction.
- Master the governance, regulation, and investment strategies essential for managing pension fund policies.
- Discover the role of artificial intelligence and technology in optimizing pension schemes and enhancing the compensation package proposal process.
