Strategic Executive Leadership in Government

Code: NC28 From: 15 - 19 September 2025 City: Prague (Czech) Fees: 5100 Pound

Introduction

In today's fast-paced and complex world, governments of all types face increasing pressures and challenges. The number and complexity of issues are growing, while the budgets and resources available to manage these issues remain limited. At the same time, citizens' expectations are rising, and they have more access to information and tools, such as social media, to voice their concerns.

Strategic leadership in government is the ability to make long-term decisions based on an understanding of current conditions and future contexts. It involves developing and implementing effective policies, managing change, addressing crises, and engaging with a broad range of stakeholders. This course on Strategic Leadership in Government is designed to provide the strategies and tools necessary to enhance the leadership performance of government officials, enabling them to take a strategic approach to manage the challenges facing modern governments.
