Financial Management and Reporting for the Public Sector (IFRS and IPSAS) Advanced Course

Code: FA28 From: 17 - 28 May 2026 City: Manama Fees: 6200 Pound

Introduction

Welcome to the Financial Management and Reporting for the Public Sector course, focusing on International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS and International Public Sector Accounting Standards IPSAS. This course is designed to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of how these standards can be applied in the public sector, highlighting their impact on financial risk management, strategic financial management, and the importance of effective financial reporting. By the end of the course, participants will be equipped to navigate the challenges of financial management in the public sector, with a clear understanding of the key distinctions between financial accounting and financial management, and how to meet the rigorous requirements of public sector accounting.

Course Objectives

This course aims to achieve the following objectives:

- In-depth understanding of financial management in the public sector, with a focus on the distinction between financial accounting and financial management.
- Gain insights into strategic financial management and how to apply these principles to meet organizational goals in the public sector.
- Explore the comparison between IPSAS and IFRS, and understand how these standards impact financial reporting in the public sector.
- Learn how to utilize financial tools for analysis and reporting, ensuring compliance with donor and stakeholder requirements.
- Understand the necessary skills required for effective financial management, including risk management and governance practices.
- Explore the transition process from cash-based accounting to accrual accounting according to IPSAS, and understand the practical implications of these standards.
