Introduction

Commercial contracts are fundamental pillars that ensure the success of any business transaction, as they clearly define the rights and obligations of the parties involved. This training course aims to provide a comprehensive and detailed understanding of the principles of preparing, negotiating, and drafting commercial contracts, including how to avoid and resolve disputes. We will cover all stages, starting from defining what a contract is and its importance, to negotiating skills, drafting contracts, writing specific clauses, and how to handle disputes. The course will equip participants with the necessary tools and knowledge to draft strong contracts that support sustainable business relationships and protect the interests of the parties involved.

Course Objectives

- Understand the nature and legal foundations of contracts: Comprehend the components and essential terms of a contract, and understand the role of negotiation in contract formulation and its relation to the final drafting.
- Master negotiation and contract drafting skills: Learn the main principles of negotiation in contracting, how to deal with difficult and complex situations, and how to use and modify standard forms.
- Develop legal drafting skills: Learn the rules for drafting contracts in clear and enforceable language, identifying essential terms, and controls that ensure the effectiveness and sustainability of contracts.
- Effectively manage and resolve disputes: Equip participants with skills to recognize potential issues in contracts and how to resolve disputes through appropriate negotiation structures or by resorting to external means such as arbitration and mediation.
- Discover innovative commercial solutions: Such as partnering agreements, "BOOT" contracts, and managing cross-border contracts along with the challenges associated with them.
