Finance & Non-Finance Professional (2-Day Intensive Course)

Code: FA28 From: 17 - 21 August 2026 City: Bordeaux (France) Fees: 4400 Pound

Introduction

In today's dynamic and competitive business environment, understanding the fundamentals of finance is crucial for professionals across all functions—not just those in the finance department. This Finance for Non-Financial Managers Course is specifically designed to bridge the knowledge gap between finance professionals and non-finance executives, empowering participants to interpret financial information, analyze business performance, and make informed financial decisions that align with organizational goals.

Whether you are involved in management, operations, sales, or project management, mastering the essentials of financial planning, budgeting, and financial analysis is key to driving business success. This program provides participants with practical insights into finance for non-finance professionals, equipping them with the skills to communicate effectively with finance teams, understand financial reports, and participate confidently in strategic business discussions.

Course Objectives

By the end of this Finance for Non-Financial Managers Course, participants will be able to:

- Understand key financial terms and concepts that are critical for effective decision-making.
- Read and interpret financial statements such as the Balance Sheet, Income Statement, and Cash Flow Statement.
- Apply financial analysis tools to evaluate business performance effectively.
- Grasp the principles of budgeting, forecasting, and financial planning.
- Communicate effectively with finance teams, using the appropriate terminology and financial context.
- Contribute to strategic decision-making by understanding the financial implications of business operations.
- Bridge the gap with finance professionals through effective financial communication.
