Code: LM28 From: 6 - 10 July 2026 City: Seattle, Washington (USA) Fees: 5700 Pound

Introduction

In today's interconnected business world, no organization succeeds in isolation. Strategic partnerships and alliances have become powerful levers for innovation, market expansion, resource optimization, and long-term value creation. The Strategic Partnership Development & Alliance Management course is designed to equip professionals in the MENA region with the frameworks and tools necessary to build, manage, and grow high-impact partnerships.

Tailored for executives, team leaders, and specialists across industries—ranging from oil & gas, banking, telecom, and government, to HR, marketing, and project management—this course delivers actionable strategies to identify the right partners, design mutually beneficial agreements, and sustain successful alliances over time.

Participants will walk away with both strategic insight and operational know-how to navigate complex stakeholder environments and build win-win collaborations.
