Human Resources Management Training Course

Code: HR28 From: 27 - 31 October 2025 City: Tokyo (Japan) Fees: 5700 Pound

Introduction:

In an era of rapid economic shifts and increasing organizational challenges, Human Resources Management HRM has emerged as the critical factor that differentiates traditional organizations from those capable of competing and innovating. HR is no longer just an administrative function concerned with recruitment and payroll – it has become a strategic force that drives growth, supports change, and empowers organizations to achieve their goals.

Black Bird Training offers a comprehensive Human Resources Management Course specifically designed to equip professionals, managers, and HR officers with the latest global concepts, tools, and strategies that will enable them to transform HR performance within their organizations.

This course combines deep theoretical knowledge with practical, real-world applications, serving as your complete guide to achieving effective and professional human resources management.

Course Objectives:

By the end of the Human Resources Management Course, participants will be able to:

- Analyze the role of HR as a strategic element in organizational success.
- Design HR policies and strategies aligned with organizational goals.
- Utilize modern tools for recruitment, evaluation, development, and motivation.
- Gain deeper understanding of labor laws and employee relations.
