Comparative Political Systems

Code: NC28 From: 11 - 15 May 2026 City: Paris (France) Fees: 5100 Pound

Introduction

Understanding political systems has become a crucial requirement for leaders and decision-makers in today's complex and interconnected world. Political systems not only shape governance structures but also influence economic stability, social cohesion, and international relations. For executives, mid-level managers, and professionals across diverse sectors in the Middle East and North Africa, mastering Comparative Political Systems offers deep insights into how institutions function, how policies are shaped, and how governance impacts organizational and national performance.

This program provides participants with analytical tools to compare different political systems, evaluate their strengths and weaknesses, and draw lessons that can be applied in their institutional and professional contexts. Whether in government, banking, telecommunications, energy, or human resources, the knowledge gained will support strategic decision-making, improve institutional adaptability, and enhance professional competencies.
