Comprehensive Practical Training Program on Wolfsberg Questionnaires

Code: QM32 From: 5 - 16 October 2026 City: Pulau Ujong (Singapore) Fees: 9700 Pound

Introduction

This comprehensive two-week training program is designed to provide in-depth and practical knowledge of Wolfsberg Questionnaires, with a strong focus on their application in correspondent banking, customer due diligence, and financial crime compliance.

The program explains how Wolfsberg standards support effective risk management, regulatory compliance, and transparency within financial institutions. It combines regulatory expectations, alignment with Financial Action Task Force recommendations, and hands-on workshops to ensure participants can confidently complete, assess, and validate Wolfsberg Questionnaires in real operational environments.

By integrating theory with practical case studies, the program enables participants to apply Wolfsberg requirements consistently and professionally across correspondent banking and customer risk assessment processes.

Course Objectives

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the role of the Wolfsberg Group in the global financial crime compliance framework
- Interpret and apply the Correspondent Banking Questionnaire and the Customer Due Diligence Questionnaire professionally
- Align Wolfsberg Questionnaire requirements with FATF Recommendations, particularly those related to customer due diligence and wire transfers
- Conduct risk-based assessments of correspondent banks and customers
- Identify gaps, weaknesses, and red flags in questionnaire responses
- Develop practical remediation and corrective action plans
- Prepare effectively for regulatory examinations and audit reviews
