Operations Readiness & Assurance (OR&A)

Code: SC32 From: 20 - 24 July 2026 City: Kigali (Rwanda) Fees: 4200 Pound

Introduction

Operations Readiness & Assurance OR&A is one of the most critical disciplines for ensuring the successful launch and sustainability of projects and business operations. It focuses on verifying that systems, processes, people, and infrastructure are fully prepared for live operations before execution begins, while applying structured frameworks to minimize risks and ensure continuity. OR&A helps organizations reduce operational risks, enhance efficiency, and achieve measurable outcomes that align with strategic objectives.

This program is designed for executives, team leaders, and specialists across multiple industries, including energy, banking, telecommunications, projects, HR, marketing, and more. It benefits professionals who aim to strengthen their capabilities in planning, execution, and operational sustainability.
