Certified Program Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights (VPSHR)

Code: QM32 From: 14 - 18 December 2026 City: Malé (Maldives) Fees: 5400 Pound

Introduction

In today's complex operational environments, security guards play a vital role in protecting people, assets, and facilities while ensuring full respect for human rights at all times. Organizations committed to the Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights VPSHR require their security personnel to demonstrate professionalism, lawful conduct, accountability, and ethical decision-making in both routine duties and emergency situations.

This five-day certified training program provides security guards with the knowledge, practical skills, and behavioral competencies needed to apply VPSHR standards effectively in daily security operations. The course integrates human rights awareness, use of force principles, rules of engagement, incident management, access control, lawful detention, search procedures, and grievance reporting processes fully aligned with company policies and international best practices.

Through realistic scenarios, simulations, drills, role play, and practical exercises, participants will develop confidence in handling routine patrols, high-pressure incidents, conflict situations, and emergency response coordination while preserving safety, dignity, respect, non-discrimination, and compliance.

Course Objectives

By the end of this training program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the purpose, framework, and key principles of VPSHR.
