IPR in Media & Entertainment: Legal Essentials for Success

Code: EL32 From: 20 - 24 July 2026 City: Paris (France) Fees: 5200 Pound

Introduction

In today's digital-first entertainment landscape, intellectual property rights IPR are at the core of value creation, brand protection, and revenue generation. From streaming platforms and digital content to AI-generated media and NFTs, legal complexity continues to expand across the industry.

This intensive 5-day program provides a structured and practical understanding of intellectual property law within the media and entertainment sector. Participants will explore copyright, trademarks, licensing structures, contract drafting, and international protection frameworks, while addressing emerging legal challenges in digital distribution and new technologies.

Through case studies, real-world examples, and interactive discussions, attendees will develop the practical competence required to manage and mitigate intellectual property risks effectively.

Course Objectives

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Understand core principles of copyright and trademark law in media and entertainment
- Analyze and draft essential clauses in entertainment contracts and licensing agreements
- Navigate legal challenges related to digital content creation, distribution, and monetization
- Identify and mitigate intellectual property risks in media productions
- Understand global IP protection frameworks and enforcement mechanisms
- Stay informed about emerging trends such as AI, blockchain, and digital assets
