Code: HR32 From: 11 - 15 April 2027 City: Cairo (Egypt) Fees: 4200 Pound

Introduction

The Strategic Human Resource Management for Business Leaders course focuses on developing a practical understanding of how human resources can support business goals, operational performance, and organizational growth. Human resources is no longer limited to administrative tasks. It now plays a direct role in workforce planning, talent development, performance improvement, employee retention, and business continuity.

This course explains how to link human resource strategies with organizational priorities. It covers workforce needs analysis, talent management, performance management, leadership involvement, and the use of workforce data to support better decision-making.

The course is delivered over five connected days. It begins with the strategic role of human resources, then moves into workforce planning and needs analysis, followed by talent management and performance improvement. The final part focuses on measuring the impact of human resource initiatives and building practical improvement plans.
