BLACKBIRD FOR TRAINING

International Public Relations Department

28 June – 2 July 2027
Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia)

UK Traininig
PARTNER

International Public Relations Department

Ref: 3254458_310911 Date: 28 June – 2 July 2027 Location: Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia) Fees: 4900 GBP

Introduction

The International Public Relations Training Course is an ideal opportunity for professionals in public relations to elevate their skills and gain deeper insights into managing international public relations. This comprehensive program equips participants with the knowledge and tools necessary to excel as public relations specialists, covering essential topics such as developing strategic public relations plans, managing international media relations, handling crises, and fostering cultural sensitivity in global communications.

Designed for both emerging and experienced professionals, this course will enhance your understanding of public relations meaning in a global context and empower you to lead impactful campaigns that strengthen your organization's global reputation. Whether you're pursuing a public relations certificate or seeking to refine your public relation skills, this course provides the expertise needed for success.

Course Objectives

By the end of this training, participants will:

- Gain a clear understanding of the definition of public relations and its importance on an international scale.
- Develop strategic communication plans tailored to global audiences.
- Master the art of building and managing relationships with international media outlets.
- Learn effective crisis management strategies for handling PR challenges in diverse settings.
- Enhance cross-cultural communication skills to deliver culturally sensitive messages.
- Acquire hands-on experience in crafting and executing public relations strategies for international campaigns.

Course Outlines

Day 1: Fundamentals of International Public Relations

- International public relations definition: Understanding its scope and significance.
- Core principles and practices of public relations professional roles.
- Exploring the public relations department: Key functions and responsibilities.
- Differences between domestic and international public relations.
- Case studies of successful international relations and public policy initiatives.

Day 2: Strategic Communication Planning

- Identifying and understanding your global audience.
- Conducting research and analysis for targeted public relations strategies.
- Setting effective public relations objectives and crafting key messages.
- Developing a strategic communication plan for international contexts.
- Best practices for implementing and evaluating public relations campaigns.

Day 3: Media Relations in an International Context

- Building and nurturing relationships with international media outlets.
- Strategies for pitching stories effectively to global media.
- Conducting impactful press conferences and media interactions.
- Media training for spokespersons in public relations courses.
- Leveraging digital and social media for advertising and public relations efforts.

Day 4: Crisis Management and Communication

- Identifying potential PR crises and evaluating associated risks.
- Developing a crisis communication plan specific to international public relations.
- Managing PR crises with professionalism and efficiency.
- Effective communication techniques for high-stakes situations.
- Post-crisis assessment to extract lessons and improve future practices.

Day 5: Cross-Cultural Communication and Sensitivity

- Understanding the impact of cultural differences on public relations.
- Building cultural competence as an essential public relations skill.
- Tailoring messages for diverse audiences and respecting cultural norms.
- Overcoming cross-cultural barriers in global campaigns.
- Best practices for executing successful lifestyle public relations and international campaigns.

Why Attend this Course: Wins & Losses!

- Global Expertise: Learn what does public relations do in international settings and how it differs from local PR practices.
- Practical Application: Gain actionable knowledge through case studies, interactive sessions, and real-world examples.
- Enhanced Skills: Refine your public relation skills in areas like strategic planning, media relations, and crisis management.
- Career Advancement: Earn a public relations certificate, boosting your credentials as a public relations professional.
- Networking Opportunities: Collaborate with peers and experts from diverse industries, exchanging insights and strategies.
- Cultural Sensitivity: Master the nuances of cross-cultural communication to connect effectively with global audiences.
- Confidence Building: Gain the confidence to lead international public relations campaigns that deliver measurable results.
- Digital Insights: Learn how to integrate advertising and public relations in the digital age for maximum impact.

Conclusion

This International Public Relations Course is an essential opportunity for professionals seeking to refine their expertise and succeed in the global arena. By exploring the latest public relations strategies, mastering the art of crisis communication, and honing public relation skills, participants will be equipped to handle complex challenges with ease.

Through a balanced approach of theoretical insights and practical application, this training ensures participants are prepared to contribute significantly to their organization's global success. Completing the course will not only provide a public relations certificate but also elevate your ability to navigate the complexities of international communication, media engagement, and cultural diversity.

Join this course to strengthen your role as a public relations specialist and lead your organization to new heights in the world of international public relations!

